The BCPS Employees for Freedom Non-Profit Society (BCPSEF) is announcing that a class action lawsuit has been launched by a representative plaintiff and BCPSEF member, on behalf of all unionized employees of the B.C. Public Service over the Province of B.C.'s proof of COVID-19 vaccination mandate imposed on provincial government employees in November 2021. The plaintiff's claim is against the Province of B.C. and British Columbia's Provincial Health Officer, Dr. Bonnie Henry.

The plaintiff has filed this action due to the Province's COVID-19 employee vaccine mandate that was contrary to the public service employees' Charter rights and violated their medical privacy and bodily autonomy.

The representative plaintiff has filed the class action on behalf of all BCGEU and PEA unionized members harmed by the Province's proof of Covid-19 vaccine mandate. The claim is seeking accountability and compensation for tens of thousands of B.C. public servants whose constitutional and employment rights were violated by the Government of British Columbia.
